Social and Personal

Short trips for the day to nearby places of interest made in one's own car or one's friends' cars are decidedly the most delightful affairs of the month. Lewis Larus carried a party of friends in his car to Charlottesville last Tuesday, returning to Richmond the same day. Those in Mr. Larus' party were Miss Anne Traylor, Miss Mary Traylor and E. C. Harrison, Jr. Miss Eugene Selden Taylor and Miss Ella Hinford motored to Virginia Beach last week in Mr. Howard MacIntyre's car. Miss Taylor will spend several weeks at the beach before returning to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Chevalier and Misses Ruby and Margaret Chevalier carried several friends in their big touring car to Luray last Thursday on a one-day jaunt. Mr. and Mrs. Chevalier have sold their town house and built a very handsome country home in Louisa county.

Engagement Announced.
Judge and Mrs. Edward Ware announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Alice Kriete, and William Taylor Eubank. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Tappanhook, July 19, at high noon.

Picnic Last Week.
One of the most enjoyable affairs of last Thursday was the picnic given by the youngest set at "Beechwood," the home of Mr. Arthur Eubank, near Mt. Vernon. Mrs. Eubank and Mrs. Brown, of Washington, chaperoned the party. Those present were Miss Mary Lemon, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Paulette, Miss Harper and Miss Anne Brown, of Washington; Miss Julia Cone, of Richmond; Miss Emily Johnson, Miss Alice Anderson, Miss Fannie Eubank, Miss Lila Barrett, Miss Lila Anderson, Miss Margaret Roberts, Miss Mary Phillips, Miss Ruth Roberts, Miss Jean Roberts, Miss Harriet Douglas, Miss Snowden, Miss Harriet Douglas, Miss Snowden, Miss Harriet Douglas, Miss Snowden.

Maturing North.
Counselman Claude L. Watkins and Mrs. Watkins, with their three children, Miss Edith, Irma and Grace Watkins, left town Friday to take their automobile for a trip to Atlantic City, Philadelphia, New York and Boston. The party expects to make the tour in easy stages and will enjoy several sight-seeing side trips.

Mr. and Mrs. John Seaton and a party of friends will travel in their car and accompany Mr. and Mrs. Watkins to Atlantic City.

Norfolk Card Party.
A Norfolk exchange of recent issue contains the following of interest here:

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Waring entertained very delightfully on cards last week in honor of their guests, Mrs. Marie Ester, of Atlanta. Five tables of bridge were entertained and the parlors were decorated with hydrangeas and potted plants. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hardy, Dr. and Mrs. Buchanan, Dr. and Mrs. Cooper, Dr. and Mrs. McCrory, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Bush, Misses Bright, of Parkersburg, W. Va., Nancy L. Stumper, of Richmond, and Worthingham Ingram Waring, Dr. Andrews and Mr. Bain.

The ceremony took place on Thursday, June 27, in Lexington. Mr. Quarles is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Quarles, of this city.

Approaching Wedding.
Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth W. Barber, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Smith, of Goldsboro, N. C., to McCarthy Hanger, of Washington, the event to occur at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church in Goldsboro, July 19.

Miss Smith, who is a descendant of the Carolina Woodruffs and Alexander Smiths, is both beautiful and attractive, besides being unusually accomplished as a vocalist and pianist.

Mr. Hanger belongs to the Virginia family whose name he bears, and is identified with manufacturing interests in Atlanta, St. Louis and Washington.

After a trip to England and the Continent the couple will be at home at the Ontario, in Washington, October 15.

Miss Harrison Honored.
Miss Helen Weiborn entertained at cards Wednesday morning in honor of Miss Rebecca Ewart, of Bedford, and Josephine Harrison, of Richmond, at her home in Roanoke. Three tables of bridge engaged in play, and at the conclusion of the game lunch was served. The guests were Misses Rebecca Ewart, Josephine Harrison, Adeline Coulbourne, Virginia Stone, Helen Allen, Sallie Shelton, Helen Wray, Augusta Stewart, Emma Cook and Joe Huff.
